THE Secretary of State for War has decided, in concurrence with His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, that in future, supplies of Stationery for Court-Martial purposes should be obtained in all practicable cases from the officiating Judge-Advocate from the Adjutant-General's Office, or the Brigadier Office of the District in which the Court-Martial is held.

(Repair of Carriages, Harness and Saddlery.)

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS it has been found expedient to alter the present system of providing for the repair of Saddlery and Saddle-trees in Cavalry Regiments and Battalions of the Military Train, as well of Harness and Carriages in the latter:

Our will and pleasure is, that from and after the 1st April, 1864, these services shall be provided for under the following regulations:—

All separate charges for the repair of carriages, harness, saddlery and saddle-trees are to be discontinued, and the following fixed rates of regimental pay shall be the sole remuneration to artificers engaged on this duty, or for any other work they may be required to perform, except in those cases specially provided for by our regulations and orders for the army:—

Daily Rates.	Cavalry.	Military Train.	Cape Mounted Riflemen.
	s. d.	s. d.	s. d.
Saddler Serjeant	3 4	3 4	3 0
Wheeler Serjeant	3 4	...
Saddler	1 10½	...	1 4
Wheeler	1 10½	...
Collar Makers	1 10½	...
Saddle-tree Maker	1 10½	...	1 4

All tools and materials to be supplied free from the public stores.

The saddlers, wheelers, collar makers and saddle-tree makers shall, after one year probationary service in the grade, have the relative rank and clothing of Corporals. They will be entitled to all the advantages of the good conduct regulations.

Advancement to the rank of Corporal will not, however, carry with it any increase of pay while serving, but will entitle the artificers to the pension of Corporal on discharge.

Promotion to the superior grade of Saddler Serjeant will be open to saddlers and collar makers, and of Wheeler Serjeant to Wheelers, as an inducement to efficiency and good conduct.

In future, the shoeing smiths of the Military Train will be termed "Shoeing and Carriage Smiths," continuing in the receipt of the same rate of pay; the separate designation of smith will therefore cease; and care is to be taken that in selection men for the rank of shoeing and carriage smith, their competence both for the repair of carriages and for farriery purposes is kept in view.

Given at our Court at St. James's, this 5th day of May, in the twentieth year of our reign.

CIRCULAR, No. 865.—(Re-engagement of Limited Service Soldiers.)

27—Gen. No. 1456.

HOME AND FOREIGN.

VICTORIA R.

War Office, 6th June, 1864.

WHEREAS it has been represented to us, that it is expedient to cancel our Royal Warrant of the 30th October, 1861, which prescribes the conditions under which a discharged limited service soldier shall be permitted, on re-engagement or re-enlistment, to reckon his former service: our will and pleasure is, that instead of the before-mentioned conditions, which are hereby cancelled, any soldier who has been, or shall hereafter be, enlisted for limited service, and has been or shall hereafter be discharged, before or after the expiration of the first period of service, and shall be permitted to re-engage or re-enlist within twelve months from the date of his discharge, shall be allowed, under clauses 2 and 3 of the regulations hereunto annexed, or such others as shall from time to time be established by our Secretary of State for War and the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief of our Army, to reckon the full period of his former service towards future claims to good conduct pay and pension.

Given at our Court at St. James's, this 6th day of June, 1864, in the twenty-seventh year of our reign.

By her Majesty's Command.

DE GREY AND RIPON.

REGULATIONS to be annexed to the Royal Warrant of the 6th June, 1864, Circular, No. 865.

1. WITH a view to hold out every encouragement to time-expired soldiers of good character to continue in the service, it is hereby notified that—in addition to the privilege of being permitted, on re-engagement, to count the full period of their first term of service towards good conduct pay and pension, and of receiving a fresh bounty, as well as the regulated allowance in lieu of a free kit, and an allowance of 1s. a day for twenty days—men who re-engage at the Head Quarters or Dépôt of their Regiment for a second term of service, will be entitled to a gratuity of £1, and a furlough for two months, or, when serving at certain foreign stations, a pecuniary allowance in lieu of the furlough.

The furlough for men serving at home will commence from the date of their re-engagement; and for men serving at Gibraltar and Malta, from the date of their arrival in this country; a passage for such men will be provided, at the public expense, at a convenient opportunity, at the discretion of the Commanding Officer, from those stations, and back again if they are not ordered to join the dépôts of their Regiments at the termination of the furlough.

Men serving in India, China, Ceylon, the Mauritius, Australia, or New Zealand, will be allowed £5, and men serving in Canada, at the Cape of Good Hope, at St. Helena, or in the West Indies £3, in lieu of the furlough, and in addition to the gratuity of £1. The allowance in lieu of the furlough will not, however, be granted to men who re-engage after their Regiment has been placed under orders to return home; as in such cases furloughs will be allowed as soon after the arrival of the Regiment in this country as circumstances will permit.

2. Soldiers of good character who have been, or may hereafter be, discharged after the completion of the first term of limited service will be permitted to re-engage or re-enlist, within twelve months from the date of their discharge, for any Corps of the same arm of the service as that from which they were discharged, provided they are not above thirty-four years of age. Men so re-engaging or re-enlisting will be allowed to count the full period of their former service towards good conduct pay and pension; and on joining the Corps in which they re-engage or re-enlist, they will be permitted to resume the Good Conduct Badges and rates of good conduct pay which they may have been in possession of at the time of their discharge; provided, however, that at the time of their re-engagement or re-enlistment they shall declare the period of their former service, and the cause of their discharge from their last Corps.

3. Soldiers of good character who have been, or may hereafter be, discharged on reduction, on account of disability, by purchase, or otherwise, during their first term of limited service, and who re-enlist within twelve months from the date of their discharge, and are not above thirty-four years of age, will be allowed the benefit of the preceding provision for reckoning former service, and resuming former good conduct pay.

HOME AND FOREIGN.

VICTORIA R.

War Office, 15th June, 1864.

WHEREAS it has been represented to Us that it is expedient to cancel the Regulations (except Clauses 9 and 10 thereof) established by Our Royal Warrant of 1st January, 1862, for the amalgamation of the General and Field Officers of Our Indian Armies with the General and Field Officers of Our Regular Army, and for the promotion of the Officers to higher rank: Our will and pleasure is, that instead of the provisions contained in Clauses 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 11 and 12 of the before-mentioned Regulations, which are hereby cancelled, those contained in the Regulations annexed to this Our Royal Warrant shall be established, and shall govern the promotion to the rank of General of the Officers of the Cavalry and Infantry of Our Indian Forces, the Officers of the Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers lately belonging to Our Indian Forces, and the Officers of Our several Staff Corps.

Given at Our Court at St. James', this 15th day of June, 1864, in the twenty-seventh year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command.

DE GREY AND RIPON.

REGULATIONS.

1. The whole of the Officers of Cavalry and Infantry of Her Majesty's Indian Army shall remain on the Indian General List as before the Warrant of 1st January 1862, and shall rise on that List to the rank of General Officer; the establishment of General Officers of the Indian Army being, from time to time, reduced in the manner herein-after provided.

2. The Colonels of Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers late of the Indian Army who had attained that rank previously to the 18th February, 1861, will continue to rise to the rank of General Officer on the Indian List; but when the last of such Colonels of Artillery or Engineers, as the case may be, is promoted to the rank of Major General, the promotion of Officers in that branch of the service to the rank of General Officer upon the Indian General List shall in each case cease.

3. The whole of the General Officers of the Royal Artillery or Royal Engineers, as the case may be, on the Indian List of the three Presidencies will in each case be then removed from that List, and placed upon separate Lists for Indian Royal Artillery and Indian Royal Engineers respectively, with an establishment of 26 General Officers for the former Corps, and 12 for the latter. If at the time of the creation of these Lists there shall be an excess in any grade of the General Officers of either arm above the prescribed establishment, the Supernumeraries shall be reduced by the absorption of one vacancy in every three; and if the numbers of Generals of either arm shall be less than the establishment, the numbers shall be completed by the promotion of the senior Colonels of Artillery or Engineers, as the case may be, on the united Lists of the three Presidencies, according to their army rank.

4. Vacancies in each of these Lists will be filled as they arise by the promotion of the senior Colonel on the Indian Lists of Artillery or Engineers, as the case may be, according to army rank, and this shall continue until all the Officers of the late Indian Artillery or Engineers respectively have risen to the rank of Major General on their

Then the General Officers on the Indian (Royal) Artillery List shall be incorporated with the General Officers of the British Royal Artillery, according to dates of commissions, and the General Officers of the Indian (Royal) Engineers with the General Officers of the British Royal Engineers. Thenceforward the establishment of General Officers of the Royal Artillery will consist of 58, and the establishment of General Officers of the Royal Engineers of 28; and vacancies will be filled by the promotion of the senior Colonel of either Corps, according to army rank, under the Regulations of the British Service.

or Engineers respectively, the whole of the Officers of the Indian Artillery or Engineers, as the case may be, including General Officers, will be removed from the List of the Indian Army and placed on the General List of the British Army; upon which the promotion up to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel inclusive will be made, indiscriminately with that of Officers of the Guards, Line, Royal Artillery, Royal Engineers and Royal Marines, in succession to vacancies on the General Officers' List of the British Army and Royal Marines, and the Indian Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers thus amalgamated.

6. The number of General Officers on the present Indian establishment on account of the Ordnance Corps is 24 for the Artillery and 11 for the Engineers. The Indian establishment of General Officers will therefore be reduced to this extent on the transfer of Generals of Artillery and Engineers to separate Lists. If at the time of transfer there shall be upon the Indian General List more than 24 Generals of Artillery, promotions shall be made from the Colonels on the General List of the Indian Army to the extent of the excess; if there shall be less than 24 Generals of Artillery at the time of transfer, the establishment of Generals on the Indian List shall be gradually reduced by the absorption of one out of every three vacancies until the reduction of 24 on account of the transfer of Officers of Artillery shall be effected. The same course will be pursued in adjusting the transfer of Generals of Engineers.

7. Officers of the several Indian Staff Corps, who had attained the rank of Lieutenant Colonel prior to the 18th February, 1861, shall be promoted under Indian Regulations to the rank of Major General on the Indian List, and shall rise on that List until they are transferred to the British establishment in the manner hereinafter provided.

8. Officers of the several Staff Corps who had not attained the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel previously to the 18th February, 1861, shall, as they respectively attain the rank of Colonel, be placed according to the dates of their Commissions on the General List of Colonels of the British Army, from which promotions shall be made, according to seniority, in succession to vacancies on the British establishment of General Officers, under the Regulations of the British Service; and the Colonels so promoted shall continue to rise on that establishment from the rank of Major-General, by seniority, in succession to all vacancies in the higher grades.

9. In order to provide for the promotion of Officers of the Staff Corps so brought upon the General List of the Officers of the Army, the establishment of General Officers of the British Army shall be increased, and the establishment of General Officers of the Indian Army, upon which the Colonels of the Staff Corps of this class will no longer rise, shall be reduced in the manner following.

10. Whenever a Colonel of the Staff Corps whose name is borne on the Amalgamated List would, if he had remained on the List of Colonels of the Indian Army, have attained the rank of Major-General, an addition of one shall be made to the British establishment of General Officers by the promotion of the senior Colonel on the Amalgamated List, whether he be a British Officer or an Officer brought in from the Staff Corps; and no promotion shall in such case be made to the rank of Major-General on the Indian List, which will be thus reduced by one General Officer for every such increase given to the British establishment.

11. By this means the British List of General Officers will, from time to time, be increased, and the Indian List of General Officers will, from time to time, be diminished, until the number of Officers reduced on the List of General Officers of the Indian Army, and the number added to the List of the British Army, shall amount to one for every twenty-eight Combatant Officers on the aggregate strength of the three Staff Corps; and thenceforward all vacancies amongst General Officers on the British List, by whomsoever occasioned, shall be filled by the promotion of the senior Colonel on the Amalgamated List of the British Army, whether of the Guards, Line or Staff Corps, as the case may be.

12. On the first addition of a Major General to the British establishment being made, in the manner laid down in paragraph 10, the whole of the Officers of the Staff Corps on the Indian List (including the General Officers) shall be transferred to, and take their places on, the General List of the British Army, according to the dates of their respective Commissions, and shall rise thereon to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel inclusive, in succession to vacancies on the General Officers' List, indiscriminately with Officers of the Guards, Line, Royal Artillery, Royal Engineers and Royal Marines.

13. As the number of General Officers on the British List increases, and the number on the Indian List diminishes, the establishment of Generals, Lieutenant Generals and Major Generals on each List shall be, from time to time, so adjusted as to maintain as nearly as may be the proportions now existing in the British Service; but any reductions that may be requisite shall be made only by gradual absorption of every third vacancy amongst Supernumeraries in the higher grades.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM
(To be annexed to Circular 853*.)

52—10th Hussars—201.

War Office.

WITH reference to the War Office Circular, dated the 3rd March last, No. 853, it is to be understood that the sum of twopence half-penny (2½d.) given therein as the price of soap, is the price of a pound of that article, and that the price of a piece of soap as issued to a recruit with his free kit is three farthings (¾d.).

Each three-pound bar of soap should be divided into twelve pieces, and the price of each piece will be three farthings (¾d.).

As soap decreases in weight by keeping, but increases in value, it is not necessary that each piece should weigh exactly one quarter of a pound.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM. Gen. No. 297.

Addressed to the Army at Home and Recruiting Districts.

Recruiting.—2 (1864).

Horse Guards, S. W., 12th May, 1864.

WITH a view to meet the possible loss to the Service of a certain number of men who are about to complete their first period of limited enlistment, and in order generally to encourage the Recruiting of the Army,

His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief desires the special attention of the Field Officers of Recruiting Districts to the orders and memoranda which have from time to time been issued, and calls on them, and all under their superintendence, for increased exertion to maintain the establishment.

* It will be their duty to give their constant attention to the numbers raised, weekly, by each party under their orders, and when the result in any case may be inadequate, to propose such changes in their distribution as may increase their chances of success; and in any instance in which, after such change, the party may still fail to send in recruits, it should be returned to its regiment and replaced by another.

* If, after every exertion has been made, the station continue unproductive, it should be altogether abandoned, and the party sent to a different locality.

* Officers of subdivisions should see that the parties are active and energetic, not remaining shut up in their billets, but constantly on the alert, attending all markets, fairs and wakes in the places where they are quartered. Superintending Officers are permitted by the last paragraph of the General Order of 1st December, 1847, to give special authority, for detaching parties for the above purposes, to adjoining towns and villages within moderate distances; and should it, in any case, be deemed desirable to send men, for similar reasons, to such distances as would entail the necessity of issuing marching money to them, His Royal Highness on the application of Inspecting Field Officers, made in sufficient time beforehand, would be prepared to recommend the same to the War Office.

* Inspecting Field Officers should obtain and furnish to recruiting parties lists of the days on which markets and fairs, especially statute-fairs for the hiring of farm servants, are held within their districts; and Sub-Division Officers should take care that parties are constantly on the look-out in the neighbourhood of railway stations, works of local improvement, or manufactories where they are likely to meet with persons in search of employment; and when stationed near the Camps of Instruction or in Garrison Towns, recruiting parties should be present at all reviews of the regular troops; and elsewhere should attend all assemblages of volunteers for inspection, or for competition at the various County Rifle Associations,—which are sure to draw together numerous idlers, from among whom good recruits are often to be obtained.

It is impossible, in a memorandum of this sort, to allude to all the detailed duties of a recruiter,—they must be well known to those who have charge of Districts; but the above are some of the most important; and it is incumbent upon Officers of Subdivisions, by their own personal energy and supervision to ascertain that none of them are neglected by those specially selected and withdrawn from regimental duty in order to be placed on the recruiting service; and who should be made to understand that their continuance in an employment which is always popular, and for which useful men can always be found, will depend solely on their own zeal and industry, as manifested in the number of good recruits whom they send in for examination.

But it is not alone to the Recruiting Districts that the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief looks for the means of maintaining the numerical efficiency of the Army.

He relies also on the zeal, the esprit-de-corps, and the active exertions of Commanding Officers of Regiments in concerting measures for raising recruits at their own Head Quarters. He is under the impression however that, at the present moment, there may be a disposition in some instances to reject men of 5 ft. 5 in. who offer to enlist at the Head Quarters of regiments; but he trusts that, after this notice, Commanding Officers will not suffer a single recruit, otherwise eligible, to be turned away, merely because he does not come up to a preconceived notion of what looks most imposing in the ranks, thus sacrificing numbers to appearance, when it is well known that it is not the biggest man whose endurance of bodily fatigue—under the knapsack on the march, or at work in the trenches—is the greatest.

Recruits may frequently be raised at the Head Quarters of a Regiment by sending the Band, or Drums and Fifes, to parade the town on market days and fair days.

There is another mode of raising recruits which, in former days, was attended with much success, and which His Royal Highness would like to see reverted to; and that is, that Officers, on leave of absence at their homes, should exert themselves to obtain recruits for their own regiments.

Should an Officer, by means of personal local interest, succeed in raising a batch of recruits, His Royal Highness would approve of their being posted to his own Company, should he desire it.

The Field Marshal Commanding in Chief is fully sensible of the zeal with which the recruiting department of the Army has always been actuated, and is satisfied that, as soon as the present state of things shall have become generally known, the vacancies now existing in the ranks will speedily be filled.

A copy of this Order is to be in possession of all superintending Officers, and the paragraphs marked* are to be read periodically to recruiting parties.

By Command of HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS

THE FIELD MARSHAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF.

Addressed to the Army at Home and Abroad.

Re-engagement of Soldiers.—1 (1864).

Horse Guards, S. W., 19th May, 1864.

His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, considering that soldiers wishing to re-engage before the expiration of their first term of service should not be rejected on account of minor defects or trivial ailments, which do not interfere with the efficient performance of their duties, or entail a probability of so doing within the period for which they re-engage: calls the attention of Commanding Officers to the annexed form of Certificate, to be furnished by Surgeons of the Corps in which soldiers complete their first period of service, which Certificate is to be considered final as far as their physical fitness is concerned.

By Command.

I certify that I have carefully examined Private A—B—, of the — Regiment, who wishes to re-engage for the term of — years: and that he is free from rupture, organic disease or other ailment likely to interfere with the efficient performance of his duty during the period for which he proposes to re-engage; and I am of opinion that he is in every respect fit for service at home or abroad.

Staff College.—6 (1864).

Horse Guards, S. W., 24th May, 1864.

THE appointment of Professor of Military History and Art at the Staff College being vacant, His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief desires that Commanding Officers will send to this Department, not later than the 10th July next, the application of such Officers as feel themselves qualified for the situation.

1. The Candidate, from whatever corps he may be selected, will receive £500 per annum, including his Regimental Pay or Half-pay. In either case the Professor, if not accommodated with Quarters, will be allowed lodging-money at 3s. a day.

2. The conditions of the appointment in all other respects will be in conformity with the Royal Warrant of the 21st June, 1862.

3. The rank of the Candidate must not be below that of Captain.

4. The Candidate must forward, with his application, a statement of his Services, of the course of his reading in Military History, and of the foreign languages of which he is sufficiently master to enable him to study foreign military works.

He will also state whether he has been in the habit of lecturing, and if so, on what occasions, and on what subjects.

The Candidate will be required to forward an essay "On the Value of Fortresses and Fortified Positions in Defensive Operations." He will illustrate his views from military history, and will, in all cases of references to authors, state the edition and the page of the work to which he refers.

5. Commanding Officers, in forwarding applications of Candidates, to state their opinion as derived from personal knowledge of their character and qualifications.

By Command.

Schoolmasters—2 (1864).

Horse Guards, S. W., 28th May, 1864.

A CASE having been recently brought to the notice of the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, in which a Regimental Schoolmaster died in debt to the public, the sale of the man's effects producing 12s. 9d. only, and the books with which he was furnished at the Normal School being entirely missing, His Royal Highness desires that, in future, the kits, books, &c., of schoolmasters may be inspected, once a quarter, by the Adjutants of the Regiments to which they are attached.

Lists of the articles composing the kits of schoolmasters, and of the books supplied to them on leaving the Royal Military Asylum, will be furnished by the Commandant of that establishment to the Council of Military Education, and be transmitted to the Corps to which they may be posted; and care is to be taken that their books, &c. (due allowance being made for fair wear), are, as well as their necessaries, kept up at their own expense.
